WOOD'S THEATER-BIRCH & DONNIKER'S MIN-STRELS .- This troupe offer another fine bill for this evening. Billy Birch's eccentricities cannot fail to excite the risibles of the most cynical. We consider him the funniest bogus darky in existence. Go and see him.

THE TRIO .- A lithograph has been executed of the three Judges of the Superior Court of Cincionati. Judge Storer's genial face is the head-wreaths, would, from baskets slung becenter of the picture, that of Judge Spencer is fore them, cast flowers towards an imposing on one side, and that of Judge Gholson on the other. When shall such three meet again?

MRS. ALLOWAY, in the First Ward, had her hands poisoned from washing with an inferior kind of soap obtained from the strolling soapgrease wagons-perhaps it was made from the grease of some poisoned dog. Having rubbed | moved slowly around, every one in a reverent off the skin, the alkali polson seemed to eat at once into her hands.

THE Chief of Police has recently made several additions to his Hogues' Gallery. He endeavored yesterday to get a picture of Jesse Davis, the burglar, recently arrested by officer Hazen of the Independent Police, but Davis very prudently declined.

BILL PATTERSON, an English pickpocket, with half a dozen aliases, was arrested by the old masters, silently spoke of the adoration of police about two o'clock yesterday morning, the Blessed Virgin, or glowingly pictured the being found in the streets under suspicious cir- | Son of Man's triumphal entry into Jerusalem, or cumstances. He was subsequently discharged from custody, after leaving his daguerreotype with the Chief of the Police, as a little memento.

PASSPORTS and letters are being secured for Cornelius Moore, editor for near a quarter of a century of the Masonic Review, of this city. He will visit scenes of interest in England and Scotland-also in France. He leaves in the Persia. The craft abroad will find him to be a workman of whom American Masons will not be ashamed.

THE RAINBOW .- During the brief rain of resterday afternoon, the showery bow turned its gay arch in such rich tinctures as to daguerrectype a duplicate upon the front of heaven. Well might the author of Waverly exclaim:

"What skilful linner e'er could choose To paint the rainbow's various hues, Unless to mortal it were given To dip his brush in dyes of heaven?"

TOSSO AND SOPHIE WERNER,-These favor ite artists have yielded to urgent solicitations from various quarters to give their popular musical entertainments. To-night they give a concert at Oxford-to-morrow night they go to Hamilton-and they will soon respond to invitations from Dayton, Indianapolis, Terre Haute, and other cities in the West. We hope they will meet with the encouragement which as artists of a high order they deserve. Success to them!

THE INEBELATE .- Dr. M. B. Wright was complimented last night by the attendance of a large auditory of some of our best citizens, at Smith & Nixon's Hall, who listened with attention to his exposition of the intimate relation drankenness bears to insanity. As there are fifty thousand drunkards in Ohio, it has been urged that any attempt to provide asylums for them would be chimerical. The experience at Binghampton, N. Y., shows that before the walls of the asylum were completed 2,800 applications were filed, ready even to pay for the advantages of the institution. An experiment might be made in each county of this State, to connect a reformatory department for inebriates with the infirmary building.

Drunkenness results from moderate drinking, gradually producing a morbid action of the system, and weakened moral purpose. The faculty of volition being deranged and impaired—the exhaustion of the system is sought to be counteracted by repeated indulgencethe brain becomes diseased, and the only cure to be relied upon is personal restraint from indulgence until self control is restored-until a healthy action of the brain ensues. Cincinnati is a serious sufferer from this fearful disease, and from the impulse given to the consideration of this 'subject by Dr. Wright's carnest effort in behalf of the inebriate, we trust something will be done to start an asylum at once.

There is a cause for much of man's proclivity to drink, which involves great wrongs done to the laboring man, driving him to the deceptive bowl, for which society is responsible-of which we will speak tearlessly, and we hope to the purpose, ereafter.

The Catholic Institute -- Festival of

Particulars are given on the first page, of eremonies incident to the laying, yesterday, of the foundation stone of a costly and capscious edifice to be creeted on the lot adjoining the Mechanics' Institute on Vine street. Corpus Christi, a Latin word, meaning the body of Christ, is a festival which has been observed in all Catholic countries with ceremonies and rejoicings since the 13th century, when it was established by papal bull of Pope Urban IV. All who took part, were, by special favor, granted absolution for from forty to one hundred days. It owes its origin to the vision of a nun of Liege, named Juliana, in 1230, who, while looking at the full moon, saw a gap in its orb; and by a peculiar revelation from heaven, learned that the moon represented the Christian Church, and the gap the want of a certain festival-that of the adoration of the body of Christ in the consecrated host-which she was to begin to celebrate and aunounce to the

In 1264, while a priest at Bolsena, who did not believe in the change of the bread into the body of Christ, was going through the ceremony of benediction, drops of blood fell on his surplice; and when he endeavored to concoal them in the folds of his garment, formed blood images of the host. The bloody surplice, as a relic, is claimed to be still in ex-

THE SOLEMN HIGH MASS. At 10% o'clock St. Peter's Cathedral, on Plum street, was crowded by devotees and the curious to witness a solemn High Mass-the actions of the officiating priest being a comp'ete allegory of the passion of Jesus Christ.

Archbishop Purcell officiated in person, having been attended from his Episcopal residence adjoining, by Father Collins-looking very venerable with his flowing beard, Elward Purcell and other priests, deacon and sub-deacon bearing crosier, mitre and Roman missal, with several acolytes, bearing torches, who had properly disposed the Episcopal vestments on the distinguished official. A procession was formed, lead by the incense bearer. The Introit having been sung, a chant of children faintly was heard, when the procession slowly passed down the middle aisles, the master of ceremonies at the head, who at every few steps would give a signal and all would fall on their knees. A number of girls in white with part of the procession, which was the Archbishop in his Episcopal robes, carrying the Host, walking under a costly canopy of yellow silk, wrought into figures of flowers of great beauty and brilliant colors, which was carried by standards at the four corners, by laymen of character in the Church. The procession attitude. The deep-toned organ sounded, and the choir chanted in full chorus. The coup d'eil was an effective picture. A thousand worshippers were at devotion. On each side the long fretted ceiling had for supports a double range of eight Corinthian columns; the subdued light came dreamily in through stained glass windows, rich in deep colored representations of ecclesiastical emblems; on the walls oil paintings vivid with portraiture of Scripture story, designed in the highest style of the suffering his death on the cross. Before you the high altar, itself an emblem of spotless purity, is of Parian marble; upon it were vases of flowers, and lofty tapers in great numbers brilliant with stellar brightness; a corruscation of gas jets were flaming with a glory around the golden sun which exhibited the consecrated wafer between its crystals. On each side of the altar those kneeling marble statues-the angels unfolding their wings, were mistily revealed through the thin lace-drapery, which in deep folds encircled the wall within the chancel. At the close of the Mass the Archbishop announced that on next Sabbath one of the most interesting services of the year would be celebrated, the reception of the sacrament by the members of the various English Catholic societies of the city. The sacred music of this Mass was a divine, enchanting ravishment. With the poet may be said .

"Of all the arts beneath the heaven That man has found, or God has given, None draws the soul so sweet away, As music's melting, mystic lay; Slight emblem of the bliss above, It soothes the spirit all to love."

REPORTED POS THE DAILY PRESS From Washington.

WASHINGTON, June 23 .- The opinion among gentlemen connected with the diplomatic corps is, that although the governments of Europe, not engaged in the present hostilities, are de-sirous of a hope for peace, the complications are so great that there is almost an impossibility of preventing a general war. In such an event there is no doubt that Russia will array herself with France. . Calwell is the lowest bidder for supplying the Philadelphia navy yard with coal, under the advertisement of the Buresu of navy yards and docks. Walden Porter, of Boston, will supply the Gosport and Brooklyn navy yards, and the naval asylum of Philadelphia, and Philadelphia, the Boston navy yard. All the bids for supplying coal are unusually low, being within four dollars per tun, and some as low as three dollars and fourteen cents. They are the first letting under the recent law, requiring coal for naval purposes to be procured by con-tract, having previously been purchased by the coal agents.

The bids for some of the other stores advertised for by the bureau of navy yards and docks, exhibit the fact of artful calculations with a view of securing the awards. As an instance, writting paper is offered at several mills only, a ream, the proposer being aware that there is comparatively but little of it used, while high prices are charged on other articles, the design being to secure a lower aggregate the design being to secure a lower aggregate bid than the other competitors who are not so well acquainted with this particular trick of the trade, but which is not uncommon in offering for good contracts.

Before this question can be finally deter-nined, it will be necessary to understand distinetly upon what issues the canvass is to be conducted. If (as I have full faith they will) the Democratic party shall determine, in the Presidential election of 1860, to adhere to the principles embodied in the Compromise measures of 1850, and ratified by the people in the Presidential election of 1852, and re-affirmed in the Kansas-Nebraska act of 1854, and incorporated into the Cincinnsti Plat-form in 1856, as expounded by Mr. Bu-chanan, in his letter accepting the nomi-nation and approved by the people in his election, in that event my friends will be at liberty to present my name to the Convention if they see proper to do so. If, on the contrary, it shall become the policy of the Democratic party (which I cannot anticipate) to repudiate these their time-honored principles on which we have achieved so many patriotic triumphs, and in lieu of them the Convention shall interpolate into the creed of the party such new issues as the revival of the African slave trade, or a Congressional slave code for the Territories, or th doctrine that the Constitution of the United States either establishes or prohibits slavery in the Territories beyond the power of the people legally to control it as other property. it is due to candor to say that in such an event, I could not accept the nomination if

It would also appear that Mr. Douglas is in the way of forgiveness and even that terrible Zouave of politicians, Governer Wise, is disposed to bury the hatchet and smoke the pipe of peace with the President upon the first invitation, and without chaffering about the terms of a treaty of peace.

COLUMBUS NEWS.

THE METCALF CASE,-Martha Metcalf was prought before the Court last evening for sentence, the motion for a new trial being overruled by Judge Bates. In the remarks of the Judge before passing sentence, he said to her that she could not keep her house open for the purpose of prostitution unknown to the people in that vicinity, and if she continned in violating the law, she must expect to be brought to trial therefor. Before the passing of the sentence, her counsel pledged the Court that the house would be broken up, and while the tears were trickling down the heeks of the prisoner, Judge Bates sentenced ber to pay a fine of $100 and the costs of prosecution, the largest amount that could be as-count of the pledge through her counsel. THE CONTESTED ELECTION CASE .- This matter was again before the City Council last evening, when, by the showing of Mr. S. S. Cox, attorney for the contestant, Mr. Crary would be elected by twelve votes over Mr. Jones, who obtained the certificate of election and held his seat until he was indicted by the Grand Jury for obtaining illegal votes, when he resigned. This matter has been tampered with long enough, and the citizens are beginning to feel an interest on the subject. If Mr. Crary has a right to his seat in the Council, they should give it to him; if not, let them order a special election, and decide the matter at once.

THE WHEAT CROP. - From specimens of wheat received from twenty-seven counties in this State, by the Board of Agriculture, it appears that none of it is very badly injured. A specimen of Helgium wheat was received this morning from a gentleman residing in Clermont county, who declared on the streets of this city, two weeks ago, that his crop was an entire loss; and it now turns out that his specimen is the finest received from any part of the FIREMEN'S MEETING .- The Franklin Fire Co. No. 5, has a meeting, this (Friday) evening at their Engine House, on Gay street. A full attendance is requested.

The Columbia Hook and Ladder Co. No. 4:

holds a meeting on Saturday evening. The American Hook and Ladder Co. No. 1, holds a meeting on Monday evening, to make all necessary arrangements for their pic-nic at Stewart's Grove, South of this city, on the Fourth of July. The arrangements for this celebration were made before any action was taken by our citizens in the matter, and an attempt to compromise and have the Hook and Ladder boys with the citizens, has proved fruitless. We will now have two celebrations, one at the North and the other at the South end of the city. BURGLARY .- John Wider was arrested, yeserday, for breaking into L. & W. B. Brooks' wholesale grocery, and stealing about $80 or $100 worth of groceries. His trial before the Mayor was continued until Saturday. The goods were found in the grocery of Sars. Clark, on Broad street, and he was arrested, to-day, charged with receiving the goods, knowing them to be stolen.

THE C., P. & IA. R. R.-Laborers are busily engaged in digging away the dirt and laying a track across High street, to connect with the C., C. & C., and Central Ohio Railroads, in the Union Depot. The improvements are expected to be completed in two weeks. This road is in excellent order, and doing a fine business since it was finished to Union City.
